RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On October 9, 2015, Kathryn S. Leffler (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she sustained a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) from an influenza (“flu”) vaccination she received on October 11, 2012. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit (“SPU”) of the Office of Special Masters.

On February 28, 2017, respondent filed a Rule 4(c) Report conceding that petitioner is entitled to compensation. Rule 4(c) Rep. at 1. Based on his evaluation of the evidence, respondent concludes that petitioner’s alleged injury is consistent with a SIRVA, and that it is not due to factors unrelated to her October 11, 2012, influenza vaccination. Id. at 4. Additionally, petitioner’s records demonstrate that the case was timely filed, that petitioner received a vaccine set forth in the Vaccine Injury Table, and that the vaccine was received in the United States. Id. Petitioner's records also show that she suffered residuals of her condition for more than six months. Id. Respondent therefore believes entitlement to Vaccine Act compensation is appropriate. Id.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

In view of respondent's concession and the evidence of record, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
